The New York State English as a Second Language Achievement Test (NYSESLAT) is designed to annually assess the English language proficiency of all English Language Learners (ELLs) enrolled in Grades K-12 in New York State schools.

The New York State Education Department (NYSED) will be contracting with MetriTech, Inc, for the spring 2024 administration of the NYSESLAT.

- School Principals should have received an email directly from Metritech with instructions for ordering materials through their online system.
 - If you did not receive an email or have questions about ordering the test, please contact MetriTech at: NYSESLAT@metritech.com or 1-800-747-4868

NEW FOR SPRING 2024

The Grades 1-2 band has been split into distinct assessments. A test sampler with examples of Grade 1 questions as well as directions for administration is available on the Office of State Assessment's NYSESLAT webpage.

ELLs with disabilities

- ELL Students identified by the Committee on Special Education (CSE) as NYSAA Eligible (0220), must participate in the NYSESLAT.
 - Use the chart on NYSED's website to ascertain the appropriate NYSESLAT grade level test to administer to those ungraded ELLs with disabilities.
